

UNIT 8 – GETTING AWAY

GRAMMAR

PG 145

1. Choose the correct forms of the verbs.

1

Ana: Hi, Sassy. Do you want a coffee? I've already ordered one.

Sassy: Thanks, Ana, but it's a bit hot. I think ¹ a cold drink.

Ana: They do good iced coffee here. That's what ² .

Sassy: Oh really? OK, ³ one too.

2

Soroosh: ¹ a holiday this summer?

Bobby: Well, ² all the time.

³ my cousins in Germany.

Soroosh: You're lucky to have family abroad. ⁴ in a hotel with my parents and my little sister.

Bobby: Why don't you come with me to Germany?

⁵ you the price of your plane ticket.

Soroosh: That'd be fantastic. ⁶ to my parents tonight.

Bobby: And ⁷ the best dates.

⁸ Germany tomorrow anyway because it's my cousin's birthday.

Soroosh: Thanks, Bobby, that's great.

2. Put the adverbs in the correct position in each sentence.

certainly

certainly definitely probably

probably

1. We're going to hire a car and drive to the coast. (probably)
2. I won't invite Mark to the barbecue. (definitely)
3. Clara's not going to travel with her brother. (certainly)
4. We'll try the local food in Phnom Penh. (certainly)
5. Hamid won't enjoy the overnight rail journey. (probably)

1.-

2.-

3.-

4.-

5.-

3.- Complete the paragraph with the present simple, present continuous or will future form of the verbs in brackets.

Hi Misha,

How are you? Here are the final arrangements for our trip next month.

You have your ticket. The train ¹ _____ (leave) Paris at 6 pm. Albert and I ² _____ (meet) outside the Gare du Nord at 5 because I have his ticket. You can meet us there, or we can see you on the train. We definitely ³ _____ (not wait) more than five minutes because the security checks ⁴ _____ (probably/take) quite a long time. The train ⁵ _____ (arrive) in London in plenty of time for us to have some food before we go to the hostel. Albert and I ⁶ _____ (take) medium-sized rucksacks and I suggest you do the same. Actually, I ⁷ _____ (send) you a link to the webpage where we found ours, as they're a good make and quite cheap. We're really looking forward to the trip.

Piers