   Yes, he is No, he isn't
2. What's the weather like on the first day of the expedition?
   Cold and rainy Hot and sunny. Sunny and windy
3. What day did the writer go kayaking?
4. What happened when he went kayaking?
   He fell in water He lost his things
5. When is the writer going to go walking in the mountains?

Saturday 15th August

I'm going to go on an expedition next Saturday. We're going to stay in a campsite in the Pyrenees. I'm going to take my laptop, so I can continue this blog.

Saturday 22nd August

Here I am in my tent. It's hot and sunny and we're staying next to a river. I'm going to take loads of photos because the mountains are spectacular. We're going to go Kayaking on the river later.

Sunday 23rd August

This is me in my Kayak. We had a fantastic time, but the river was realty cold. I fell in the water five times, so I Know! We're going to walk in the mountains tomorrow. I'm going to take my compass ... and a first aid Kit!

Match (draw a line) the sentences using so (un tā, un tāpēc / и так,и потому) .

Examples: I'm going to take my laptop, so I can continue this blog.
I fell in the water five times, so I know!
