V.C.C.E-Trustworthiness

Read, select or type in the correct answers

1. If you knock over your aunt's vase and break it, but don't tell her, are you trustworthy?

(YES NO)

2. Michael spills his juice on the floor in the classroom and made the janitor clean it up without telling him that he did it. Is he trustworthy?

(YES NO)

3. John broke his window in his room with his baseball bat. What should he do?

a. Confess and tell his mom.
b. Keep it a secret and tell his friends.
c. Keep it a secret.
d. He tells everybody except his parents.

4. The definition of trustworthy is being able to be relied on as honest or truthful.

(True False)

5. What should you do if you break something?

a. Keep it a secret.
b. Blame it on somebody else.
c. Tell your parents.
d. Lie to your parent or guardian.

LIVEWORKSHEETS LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS

HONESTY

In the following situations below, which actions are honest?

1. You broke a glass and your mother asks who broke it?

   You tell her you did it.

   You say you do not know what happened.

   You blame your little sister.

2. You really want to play with a friend's toy but it's time to go home.

   You slip the toy in your bag.

   You ask to borrow the toy.

3. Your mother said you can play video games for 30 minutes but you have to set a timer.

   When the time is almost up, you secretly add more time

   You stop playing when the timer rings

4. You went to Joey's house to play and then you decide to go to Kate's withou asking permission. When your dad asks, "Whose house did you play at today?"

   You say, "I played at Joey's alone.

   You say, "I played at both Joey's and Kate's".

Fill in the blanks

5. Honesty is telling the _____ and always doing the _____ thing.

LIVEWORKSHEETS