2 a. Underline the correct item.

1 He felt very angry/nervous about having his car stolen.
2 Peter was very generous/joyful to his friends when he won the lottery.
3 Due to the medication he was taking, he tended to be rather terrible/irritable.
4 Wendy is always very optimistic/astonished about the future.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5 Underline the correct item.

1 I hate this sad/dark/dull/dim weather; it makes me feel so depressed.
2 Our sense of touch/feel/contact/notice is very highly developed.
3 I would hate to miss/lose/fail/let my sense of humour.
4 Some people have no sense of danger/risk/hazard/threat.
5 She finds it difficult to tell/express/state/stress her feelings.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6 Underline the correct form of the adjective.

1 The music in that restaurant was quite relaxed/relaxing.
2 I was very pleased/pleasing that you decided to join us.
3 The children were very depressed/depressing when the field trip was cancelled.
4 I find horror films quite terrified/terrifying.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Words often confused

8 Underline the correct item.

1 Since I've moved out, I do miss/lose my parents.
2 He could feel his anger growing/heating.
3 It feels strange/strangely to be here.
4 I felt as/like a child again.
5 He finds it difficult to express/tell his feelings.
6 She is trying to hide her true/authentic feelings.
7 She always wants to please/enjoy other people.
8 I'm sorry I've injured/hurt your feelings.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Vocabulary Practice

3 a. Match the words in columns A and B to form collocation

A	B
hasty	behaviour
strong	humoured
thoughtless	emotions
good	control
self	decisions

LIVEWORKSHEETS