Tour of street art in Los Angeles

You must go on this tour. It's great. You explore lots of streets in L.A. on foot with a guide and look at the amazing street art there. Some of the guides are street artists themselves. Your guide teaches you all about the artists and their work. You learn about the history of the local area, too. It's really interesting. The tour takes about two hours and you can pay what you want for it. It's up to you! The tour is popular so you must go online and reserve a place. It's a good idea to wear sneakers or comfortable shoes because you walk a long way. And don't forget to take your camera!
