

A Complete the exchanges about present or past habits. Sometimes there is more than one possible answer.

- 1 A: Did you know John before?
B: Yes, we _____ be at school together.
- 2 A: How are you finding your new flatmate?
B: She's nice but quite messy. She _____ leaving stuff around the place.
- 3 A: How often did you see your grandmother when you were young?
B: We _____ see her most weekends.
- 4 A: Did you _____ enjoy being in swimming competitions?
B: Actually, no. I _____ felt relieved as soon as one was over.
- 5 A: Is this a photo of you on holiday when you were young?
B: Yes, we _____ go to Portugal every year.
- 6 A: Do you go to the gym regularly?
B: Every year I _____ sign up for a year's membership and then after a month I _____ usually stop going.
- 7 A: I was quite an awkward child.
B: I remember. You _____ knocking things over and you _____ go red when visitors spoke to you.
- 8 A: People who don't work here _____ often park their cars here all day. It's outrageous!
B: Yes, and it's illegal.

B Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use the word(s) in brackets in your answer.

1 I hate the way Mike comes up behind people and looks over their shoulders.

Mike _____ shoulders.
(always)

2 What was your address before you moved here?

Where _____ live?
(to)

3 I'm quite a spontaneous person and I often start conversations with strangers.

I'm quite a spontaneous person and _____ conversations with strangers. (will)

4 Pollution was never a rural problem, only an urban one.

Pollution didn't _____,
only an urban one. (be)

5 In the 1960s the authorities used to keep track of all their citizens' movements.

In the 1960s _____ all their citizens' movements. (would)

6 Peggy used to borrow money all the time and never pay it back. That was really annoying.

Peggy was _____ back.
(borrowing money)

