Part A. Draw a line to match the vocabulary word with its correct definition.

a.	fraudulent	belief that some people, ideas, etc., are better than others without any evidence.
b.	reliable	free from mistakes or errors
c.	misleading	worthy or deserving of trust, honest
d.	trustworthy	able to be trusted to do or provide what is needed, dependable
e.	partisan	causing someone to believe something that is not true
f.	biased	done to trick someone for the purpose of getting something valuable, especially if it is against the law
g.	accurate	a person who strongly supports a particular leader, group, or cause; especially when involving politics

---

Part B. Complete each sentence with the correct vocabular word from part A.

1. My mother believes I'm the smartest, most beautiful girl in the world. But she is a little bit _____.

2. I want to figure out which senator to vote for in the next election, but I can't find a neutral website. Every website I find is very _____. They're either super Republican or Democrat focused.

3. The weather on my cell phone app is very _____. It said the high temperature would be 71 degrees, and the temperature actually was 71 degrees.

4. He filed a _____ tax return. Because that was against the law, he might go to jail.

5. My uncle sends me a lot of _____ things that he finds on Facebook. The stuff he finds isn't true, but the people who put the information out there want people to believe it is.

6. I'm happy I found a website with _____ information about Covid 19. I'm glad, because I can't depend on a lot of information I find online.

7. Abraham (Abe) Lincoln was a very _____ man. In fact, his nickname was "Honest Abe".