1. I could never (1)..... a car at home because we pay very high tax on cars. Only rich people can really (2)..... to buy a car at home. Here in the US. I drive a nice new car and I can easily (3)..... it. You don't have to be rich to (4)..... a car, which is great.
2. At home it only costs about $300 a month to (5)..... a nice apartment. That's what I used to pay for a four-room apartment in a good (6)..... Here in the US, I pay more than (7)..... that for a much smaller apartment, and it's not in very nice neighborhood.
3. I bought a lot of clothes in my country before I move to the US because everyone told me how (8)..... American clothing is. I was kind of surprised that I could get nice clothes here for very (9)..... prices. In fact, it costs me (10)..... for clothes here than it used to cost me at home.
4. In my country, not a lot of people travel by (11)..... because it costs more than most people can afford. But the US is such a big country and the (12)..... is large, so you have a lot of people traveling by (13)..... That's what keeps the (14)..... down. That means I can afford to (15)..... here and I do it all the time. I couldn't do that at home.
5. Most people send their children to (16)..... schools at home because the public schools are not very good. You have to pay a lot to do that so it's a big (17)..... for many people. Public schools are (18)..... in the US, and they're (19)....., so much people her send their children to public schools.
6. Here in US you need to have health insurance because it (20)..... a lot to see a doctor or to enter a (21)..... At home, you don't have to (22)..... much to see a doctor or go to a hospital because most of the clinics and (23)..... are run by the government.
