

ROCKET MAN

Elton John

She packed my bags last night / week pre-flight

Zero hour 8 / 9 a.m.

And I'm gonna be high as a kite / cloud by then

I miss my home / the Earth so much I miss my wife

It's lonely out in my rocket / space

On such a timeless flight / trip

And I think it's gonna be a long, long flight / time

'Til touchdown brings me 'round again to the land / find

I'm not the man they think I am at home / at work

Oh, no, no, no

I'm a rocket man / superman

Rocket man, burning out his fuse up here this time / alone

And I think it's gonna be a nice, nice / long, long time

'Til touchdown brings me 'round again to find / to the Earth

I'm not the man they think I am at work / at home

Oh, no, no, no

I'm a spiderman / rocket man

Rocket man, burning out his fuse up the sky / here alone

Mars ain't the kind of a planet / place to raise your kids
In fact it's hot / cold as hell
And there's noone / everyone there to raise them
If you did

And all this science I don't like that much / understand
It's just my job five days a week / month
A rocket man, a rocket man

And I think it's gonna be a long, long day / time
'Til touchdown brings me 'round again to find / to hide
I'm not the man they think I am at all / at home
Oh, no, no, no
I'm a rocket man
Rocket man, burning out his fuse up here alone
