

Name _____ Class _____ Group _____ No. _____

Date _____

"How much?" and "How many?"We use How much + *uncountable noun(How much food? How much bread? How much money?).*We use How many + *countable noun(How many apples? How many books? How many people?).Part A Look at Jane's recipe and write Nancy's questions.Use: "How much" or "How many".The Recipe

12 eggs	250 g. sugar	150 g. butter
1 orange	2 potatoes	500 g. flour

Nancy: _____ oranges do you need?

Jane: Only one.

Nancy: _____

Jane: One hundred and fifty grams.

Nancy: _____

Jane: Two hundred and fifty grams.

Nancy: _____

Jane: A dozen.

Nancy: _____

Jane: Half a kilo.

Nancy: _____

Jane: Two.

Part B Fill in: "How much" or "How many". Answer the question.

Example: How much water was there in the pot? (a little)
There was a little water.

1. _____ sugar is there in this bowl? (a lot of)

2. _____ apples are there on the plate? (a few)

3. _____ carrots were there in the basket? (a lot of)

4. _____ salt was there in the jar? (a little)

5. _____ coffee do you want? (3 cups)

6. _____ sugar do you want? (2 spoons)

7. _____ chocolate did you buy? (2 packets)

8. _____ pieces of cake did you eat? (3 pieces)

9. _____ bowls of salad did you eat? (a bowl)

10. _____ chairs are there in your classroom? (56 chairs)

11. _____ home work do you have? (a lot of)

12. _____ children does Mr. and Mrs. White have? (4 children)

13. _____ money did Tom want? (100 dollars)
