

Date: _____

Grade: _____

Subject: History

Topic: Movement Towards Emancipation

Answer all questions.

1. Identify one way by which slaves showed that they no longer wanted to remain enslaved.
2. Identify the religious group that freed their slaves, then started to agitate for the freedom for all other slaves.
3. What was the basic idea that humanitarians had for other people?
4. Who was the chairman for the anti-slavery movement in the British Parliament?
5. Who was sent to collect stories and instruments to be used as evidence that the slave trade was cruel/brutal?
6. Identify two of the instruments that were collected.

7. Two ways by which the anti-slavery group made the people aware that the slave trade and slavery were cruel.
8. Write one word that tells when a slave could purchase his or her own freedom.
9. In what year was the slave trade abolished?
10. Which word is used to describe the ending of slavery?
11. A word used to describe full freedom from slavery.
12. The date, and year slaves were emancipated
13. Name given to the group of farmers who were living in England
14. The word used to describe a cooperative working relationship between slaves and ex-masters.
15. Word used to describe betterment for the current slaves.

16. Explain the reason for Wilberforce's decision to fight for the freedom of slaves.

17. The Quakers were also called the Society of friends. In 1787, they formed a committee for the abolition of the slave trade.
Give details of their initial proposal, stating how it would be carried out.