

Choose the correct verb from a, b or c:

1. I have ----- tennis for two hours.
a. playing                      b. played                      c. play

2. How long have you ----- there?
a. be                                  b. were                                  c. been

3. She ----- done the test since morning.
a. have                                  b. had                                  c. has

4. Ali has ----- to the shopping mall.
a. gone                                  b. go                                  c. went

5. He has ----- as a teacher for five years.
a. worked                                  b. works                                  c. working