

Unit 8: Exercise 5

Correct the underlined relative pronouns in the sentences.

- 1 Halloween is an ancient Celtic festival when is now celebrated in many countries across the globe.
- 2 Yorkshire puddings, that are made with flour, eggs and milk, are a savoury food served with roast beef in the UK.
- 3 In Denmark, parents have to select baby names from a list of around 7,000 names who the government has approved.
- 4 Niue is an island nation in the South Pacific which coins feature characters from Disney and Star Wars movies.
- 5 In Sudan there are more than 200 pyramids, where is more than the number of pyramids found in Egypt.
- 6 According to Greek myth, the name 'Europe' came from the Phoenician princess Europa, which was the mother of King Minos of Crete.
- 7 Hawaii is the only place in the US which coffee is grown commercially.
- 8 Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwlllantysiliogogogoch, who is located in Wales, has the longest name of any town in Europe.