NATIONAL HONOURS & AWARDS IN JAMAICA

READ EACH STATEMENT CAREFULLY THEN SELECT TRUE IF THE STATEMENT IS CORRECT OR FALSE IS THE STATEMENT IS FLAWED.

The Jamaica Honours and Awards System is used to recognise the service and contribution of citizens for making meaningful and significant impact on personal life	TRUE FALSE
Recipients of the Order of National Hero are to be addressed as "Right Excellent"	TRUE FALSE
The Badge of Honour for Gallantry is another name for the Medal of Honour for Gallantry	TRUE FALSE
The Order of Distinction has TWO classes – Commendation Class and Officer Class	TRUE FALSE
The Order of the Nation is higher than the Order of Excellence	TRUE FALSE
The highest National Honour is the Order of National Hero	TRUE FALSE
The insignia in this image represents the Order of National Hero 	TRUE FALSE
The Order of Merit is below the Order of Jamaica	TRUE FALSE
The Medal of Honour can only be given to Jamaican Police, Soldiers, Prison Officers and Fire Fighters	TRUE FALSE
The motto of the Order of National Hero is "He built a nation which hath foundations"	TRUE FALSE

LIVEWORKSHEETS