

Capital Letters

Rule: Titles (every main word) are written with capital letters.

For the titles of books, only nouns, verbs, adjectives and adverbs are capitalized where as prepositions, articles and conjunctions are not capitalized.

Write the given book titles using capitalization rule.

1. ivy and bean

2. edward and the pirates

3. the big snow

4. dad, Jackie and me

5. the cat in the hat

6. the giant hug

