Pronouns

Generic pronouns refer to people in general, including the speaker and the listener, without references to specific genders.

Questions:

- Is it referring to people in general? (use one/ones, you/your or we/us)
- Is it an opinion of a group of people? (use they say, they think, they believe etc)

Fill in the blanks with: one, ones, you, your, they, we/us

1. _____ should not speak with _____ mouth full. It is disgusting.
2. Reading English can help to expand _____ vocabulary.
3. _____ can never know if politicians are telling the truth.
4. _____ say that the fifth wave will reach us next month.
5. _____ say that the food in this restaurant is very good.
6. _____ say that an apple a day keeps the doctor away.
7. _____ believe that global warming will cause the polar ice caps to melt.
8. _____ should not drive while under the influence of alcohol.
9. _____ say that dogs shouldn't eat chocolate.
10. Getting a good education is the first tool needed for _____ to have a successful career.
11. As decent human beings, _____ have a moral obligation to treat others with kindness.
12. As a decent human being, _____ has a moral obligation to treat others with kindness.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

We use 'it' to talk about time, weather, distance, and some nouns: a pity, a shame, a love, a desire, an experience etc

'It' is also used before an adjective or an action verb.

'There' + to be is used to say that something exists (or doesn't) or is present (or not). 'It' is also used before a concrete noun: cathedral, money, rain, mountain,

Questions:

- Is there an adjective or an action verb?
- Is there a reference (direct or indirect) to time, weather or distance?
- Is there something that exists or doesn't exist?

Use 'it' is/was or 'there' is/was to complete the following sentences:

1. _____ was a sad day when we learned that our teacher had passed away.
2. _____ is unusual to have such hot weather at this time of the year.
3. We enjoyed the picnic because _____ was such lovely weather.
4. Let me give you a lift. _____ is such a long way to walk.
5. _____ is a beautiful cathedral in Canterbury. You must visit it!
6. We can't go on holiday this year because _____ is no money.
7. _____ is a pity that you couldn't come to the party. We had such a lovely time.
8. _____ is a mountain with a flat top in Cape Town called Table Mountain.
9. What is the time please? _____ is half-past four.
10. _____ are a lot of people on the beach today because _____ is so hot.
11. What is the weather like in London today? _____ is raining, as usual!
12. What is the weather like in London today? _____ is rain, as usual!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

What makes a place a popular tourist destination?

(friendly people, beautiful scenery, lovely weather etc)

1. What makes Phuket a popular tourist destination?

   is the lovely weather that makes Phuket a popular tourist destination.

2. What makes Cape Town a popular tourist destination?

   is the beautiful scenery that makes Cape Town a popular tourist destination.

3. What makes Thailand a popular tourist destination?

   is the friendly people that makes Thailand a popular tourist destination.

Reflexive Pronouns:

1. It is very difficult to put into somebody else's shoes.
2. I am not going to help you. You must do it .
3. My cousins designed their house .
4. He hurt when he fell down the stairs.
5. My mother washed all the dishes by .
6. My friends enjoyed at the beach yesterday.
7. We didn't buy it . Our parents bought it for us.
8. His friends are sick, so he has to play by today.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Reciprocal Pronouns

Reciprocal Pronouns

We use reciprocal pronouns when two or more people do the same thing.

The boys are fighting one another

Tina and Mary are talking to each other

1. My mother and father love and respect
2. Tom and Mary gave gold rings on their wedding day.
3. We help in times of trouble.
4. The elephants stood close together in order to protect .
5. The countries agreed to respect trade routes.
6. Jim and Kim hugged .
7. Most religions teach people to love .

General:

1. Sharon and Sandra have not seen for a long time.
2. Marcus hurt while he was ice-skating.
3. People should not leave luggage unattended at an airport.
4. The bus stop is near house.
5. John wrote a love poem for girlfriend.
6. is a beautiful cathedral in Canterbury.
7. is the historical architecture that makes Europe so interesting.
8. My phone randomly turns off, which is a nuisance!

LIVEWORKSHEETS