HAUNTED BRITAIN

FILL IN THE GAPS.

BELONGED BOTH DURING ELOPE GALLOWS GHOST HAUNTED
MANOR POOR PUB QUEEN ROUNDHEADS SEAT SENTENCED
TREATED UNFORTUNATELY VICTIMS WEST AFRICA

There is a list of more than 800 _____ houses in the files of the Tourist Board in Britain. Three of them are described in our course book. The first is Glamis Castle. It _____ to the same family, the Bowes-Lyons, since 1372. The story says that _____ Elisabeth's mother lived here and she can be sometimes seen there. Another person whose _____ can be seen here is Sampson. He used to work here. He was brought to the house from _____ together with his mother. Because they were _____ badly, he died when he was nine. He sometimes sits on the stone _____ outside the Queen's bedroom.

Another haunted house is in London. It's a _____ named The Prospect of Whitby. It is one of the oldest riverside pubs. The name of the ghost is William Beckett who lived in London in the 17th century. He was very _____ and he stole some food. Because of that the judge _____ him to death. The judge was a very cruel man. He used to come to the pub to sit by the window and watch his _____ die on the _____.

The name of the third ghost is Kate Penfound. She lived at Penfound _____. She died in 1694 _____ the English Civil War. The war was between the _____ and the Royalists. Her father was a Royalist but, _____, she fell in love with a boy who was a roundhead. As they were getting ready to _____, her father found them and killed them _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS