

Singular and Plural Possessive Nouns

To show possession for a singular noun, an apostrophe is added before the s.

The dog's bed

To show possession for a plural noun, an apostrophe is added after the s.

The dogs' bed

Irregular plurals:
add the apostrophe
before the s.

The children's bed.

The mice's house.

Write the possessive form of each of the following:

Singular

(the child of the mother)

---

(the teeth of the child)

---

(the noise of the radio)

---

(the animals of the desert)

---

(the helper of the builder)

---

(the uniform of the nurse)

---

(the car of the man)

---

Plural

(the owner of the cats)

---

(the boat of the ladies)

---

(the guitars of the teachers)

---

(the houses of the people)

---

(the work of the students)

---

(the feathers of the geese)

---

(the idea of the boys)

---