Grammar: word order in sentences.

Based on the word order in English above, choose an option that completes the following sentences along with the correct word order category to which they belong.

1. He ate a _____ in the kitchen yesterday afternoon.
   a) sandwich (subject)
   b) sandwich (verb)
   c) sandwich (object)

2. She cut her hair at the hairdresser _____.
   a) yesterday (place)
   b) yesterday (time)
   c) yesterday (verb)

3. They played their _____ in the living room _____.
   a) video games (subject), yesterday (place)
   b) video games (object), all night (time)
   c) video games (object), all night (place)

4. ___ had my notebooks _____ this morning.
   a) I (subject), in my backpack (object)
   b) I (object), in my backpack (place)
   c) I (subject), in my backpack (place)

5. My dog _____ with his _____ in the park _____.
   a) ran (object), ball (verb), all morning (time).
   b) ball (verb), ran (object), all morning (time).
   c) ran (verb), ball (object), all mornign (time).

LIVEWORKSHEETS