Unit 2 Lesson 4
	what makes a character do what they do perfect example of something words spoken, or sounds made, in a short, sharp way to successfully deal with a problem
	A feeling of stress, worry, unease or excitement created by two opposing forces, ideas or personalities
	The main character in a story
	The character or thing that causes problems for the protagonist having human characteristics someone who seems intelligent but is not features or quality of a person, place or thing

LIVEWORKSHEETS

	A performance made without a script or much preparation
	When people come together to work on a creative project that isn't yet finished not planned or thought about; natural and sudden Someone who is given lots of nice things and then expects to get their own way Communication done without words, only movement and gesture
	A person who guides actors by giving them ideas and suggestions the way someone acts or feels in response to something to think quickly to make something bigger, better or more complex different or opposite and likely to cause disagreement or a fight

LIVEWORKSHEETS