READING SKILLS – MAKING INFERENCE

1/ Chloe wasn't much of a writer but what she could do with a brush and canvas was incredible. You give her any topic to write on, she would do a decent job but if you explain her a scenery she would incredibly bring it to life on a canvas. Everyone complimented her for what she was amazing at. What does it infer?

Chloe could do anything with incredible means.

Chloe could write anything incredibly.

She was the worst writer ever.

Her art skills were amazing.

2/ Peter was trying as hard as he could to stay awake but unfortunately fell asleep. Everyone has told him that he was real, so he had to make it sure with his own eyes. That's why he tried to stay awake at night but fell asleep at 9:45 PM. Next thing he saw that it was already 7:00 AM and presents all around in his room. Why was Peter trying so hard to stay awake at night?

It was his birthday night

It was Halloween night and wanted to see a monster.

It was Christmas Eve and he wanted to see Santa with his own eyes.

He had a horror movie plan with his friends.

3/ Turner almost wished that he hadn't listened to the radio. He went to the closet and grabbed his umbrella. He would feel silly carrying it to the bus stop on such a sunny morning. What probably happened?

Turner realized that he had an unnatural fear of falling radio parts.

Turner had promised himself to do something silly that morning.

Turner had heard a weather forecast that predicted rain.

Turner planned to trade his umbrella for a bus ride.

4/ "Larry, as your boss, I must say it's been very interesting working with you," Miss Valdez said. "However, it seems that our company's needs and your performance style are not well matched. Therefore, it makes me very sad to have to ask you to resign your position effective from today." What was Miss Valdez telling Larry?

She would feel really bad if he decided to quit.

He was being fired.

He was getting a raise in pay.

She really enjoyed having him in the office.

5/ No, Honey, I don't want you to spend a lot of money on my birthday present. Just having you for a husband is the only gift I need. In fact, I'll just drive my old rusty bucket of bolts down to the mall and buy myself a little present. And if the poor old car doesn't break down, I'll be back soon. What is the message?

I don't want a gift.

Buy me a new car.

The mall is fun.

I'll carry a bucket for you.

6/ Maxine was not able to sleep and it was a late night. She knew she should not have chosen that movie to watch. She could have picked a drama or a romantic comedy over it. Now all she could think of was that movie and the white face character in that movie. What is it being inferred here?

The movie was so interesting.

It was so awful and boring.

It was too scary.

Maxine was insomniac.
