The Art Game

Complete this summary of the story.

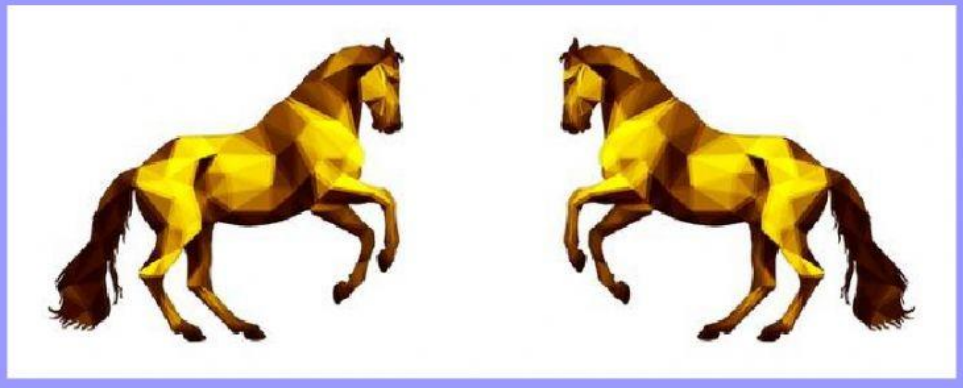

Jeff and Andy were two crooks _____ made a living by tricking wealthy people out of their _____. Their "business" was _____ doing well so Andy suggested a change of strategy. He said this time people would "buy" things from them for _____ than just one dollar. He said they should go to Pittsburg, where they would find millionaires ready to buy expensive things.

After searching for three days, Andy announced to Jeff that he had met a _____ called Scudder in a little coffee bar. Scudder had invited him over to his house, and Andy had learnt that he was a _____ millionaire, willing to get acquainted with art. The man wished to become a gentleman. Therefore, he had teachers, _____ books and lots of paintings in his house.

Scudder had a famous ancient little gold horse from _____. He explained that there were two of those horses; he wanted to buy the other one but he _____ find it.

Andy managed to get hold of a gold horse from Egypt and instructed Jeff to _____ Scudder, passing himself off as an _____ who wanted to buy Scudder's horse. Scudder refused to sell his horse and _____ Jeff's horse instead.

As soon as Andy was told the deal was done, he wanted to _____ Pittsburg. He was eventually forced to tell Jeff that there was no second horse and that Scudder had actually bought _____ own.

LIVEWORKSHEETS