Choose the correct subjects of these sentences

1. Earth is the only place in the Universe known to support life.

A. Universe

C. Earth

B. Earth is the only space

D. the only space

2. France is in Western Europe.

A. Western Europe

C. Europe

B. France

D. Western

3. Mary and Anna are talking about their school day.

A. Mary

C. their school day

B. Anna

D. Mary and Anna

4. Mercury, Venus, Earth, and Mars are the Solar System's inner planets.

A. Mercury, Venus, Earth, and Mars

C. Earth

B. Solar System's inner planets

D. planets

5. Giant spacecrafts can be heavy and expensive to build.

A. spacecrafts

C. heavy and expensive to build

B. Giant spacecrafts

D. crafts

6. The salty waters of the oceans cover about three-quarters of the Earth's entire surface.

A. the Earth's entire surface

C. The salty waters of the oceans

B. three-quarters

D. the salty waters

7. Living in Ho Chi Minh City is more expensive than in other cities.

A. Living in Ho Chi Minh City

C. Ho Chi Minh City

B. Living

D. other cities

8. Those who study hard have more capability of reaching their goals.

A. Those

C. who study hard

B. who

D. Those who study hard

9. In the United States, the process of food production is controlled very strictly.

A. the United States

C. the process

B. The process of food production

D. food production

10. The little girl who has curly brown hair is my boss's daughter.

A. The little girl

C. The little girl who has curly brown hair

B. curly brown hair

D. my boss's daughter

11. The newly formed stars are huge spinning globes of hot, glowing gas—mainly hydrogen.

A. stars

C. globes

B. The newly formed stars are huge spinning globes

D. The newly formed stars

12. Columbus, who discovered America, where the Indians lived, came from Spain.

A. Columbus, who discovered America, where the Indians lived

C. Columbus

B. Who discovered America

D. the Indians