

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

DIRECTIONS: Play, listen and read along to the story. Use the story to complete the sections

SECTION 1: Write R for realism (it is real and could happen) or F for fantasy (it is not real and could not happen) to tell if the picture is reality or fantasy.

SECTION 2: Circle R for realism or F for fantasy to tell if the sentence could be reality or fantasy.

| | | |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Trinity has a sister named Sevyn. | <input type="radio"/> R | <input type="radio"/> F |
| 2. Trinity has a flying bed. | <input type="radio"/> R | <input type="radio"/> F |
| 3. The flying jar is magic. | <input type="radio"/> R | <input type="radio"/> F |
| 4. Trinity has a good dream. | <input type="radio"/> R | <input type="radio"/> F |

SECTION 3: Write two sentences from the story that can be realism and two sentences that can fantasy in the column below.

| REALISM | FANTASY |
|---------|---------|
| | |
| | |