HOW TO ATTRACT THE JOB OF YOUR DREAM

Use these simple strategies for attracting your dream job:

(1)

Do you know of someone who is doing what you dream of? Are there any role models, mentors, or coaches you can learn from? Study what others have done and ask them questions if you have the opportunity. Now that you already know what you want, you just need to figure out exactly how to get it!

(2)

While you're keeping your eye on the prize, you might be taking too much in at once. You also may be trying to accomplish too much too fast. Divide your dream goal into smaller mini-goals. Once you have a simplified plan in place, attack each mini-goal with your full attention and you'll be chipping away slowly, but surely towards your dream goal!

(3)

If you work on your interaction and people skills, you can work toward nearly any job that you want. This is because you'll get your points across clearly and become well respected.

(4)

It always helps if you're seen as the type of person that will go the extra mile. If there's a specific job that you're interviewing for, study the objectives and duties of the job carefully. Make sure you have the qualities and skill set they're looking for, and if you don't, show that you're willing to take the initiative to acquire them.

(5)

In order to make your dream job a reality, realize that this goal takes time, research, guidance, money, and a whole lot of efforts. Chances are that your dream job isn't an entry-level position at your local McDonald's, but perhaps you'll want to own a restaurant some day. After all, no restaurant opened overnight!

So what can you do today to get started on your goal? Perhaps you can begin your research, get a necessary education, locate a mentor, start a savings account, or do any number of other simple tasks that will help you to build momentum.

Use these strategies whenever possible to help you attract your dream job. With consistent action and effort, the only way to go is up!
