PRONOUN TYPES AND AGREEMENT PRACTICE

Drag and drop the type of pronoun that is underlined in each sentence:

nominative/singular	nominative/plural	relative (people)	possessive (singular)
objective/singular	indefinite/singular	relative (things)	possessive (plural)
objective/plural	indefinite/plural

1. In "Never Shall I Forget" Elie Wiesel tells of his experiences when he first arrives at a concentration camp. _____
2. The lucky ones who were near a window could breathe on the train. _____
3. Mrs. Schächter screamed, "I see fire!" _____
4. "Jews, listen to me," she cried. "I see a fire!" _____
5. "Why have you come here?" the inmate questioned them. _____
6. Someone dared to reply: "What do you think? That we came here of our own free will?" _____
7. We told ourselves we must not give up hope even as the sword hangs over our heads. _____
8. As we approached the pit, all around us were weeping. _____
9. We shall never forget those flames that consumed our faith forever. _____
10. Everyone must learn these lessons that cost so much to the people who lived them. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS