

Past simple and past continuous

A. Read the paragraph below and choose the correct words.

Yesterday evening, I was walking in the forest. As soon as / Suddenly, I heard a noise behind me. I looked and saw two yellow eyes.

As soon as / While I saw them, I started running, I didn't know what it was. When / While I got out of the forest, I stopped and looked behind me again.

Luckily / Unfortunately, it was just a black cat with big yellow eyes. I felt so silly.

B. Complete the text with the words in the box.

while	suddenly	unfortunately	while	luckily
	as soon as	when

Last year, I went to a Katy Perry concert with my friends Betty and Nellie. 1. _____ I was there, something amazing happened. We were dancing and singing along to all her songs but it was really hot in there so I went to get some water. I tried to find a store, but I got lost. I was walking in some dark place when 2. _____, I saw someone in front of me! 3. _____ I saw her, I knew it was Katy. She just smiled at me and then she gave me her baseball hat! Later, 4. _____ I showed it to my friends, they just laughed. "It's Katy's" I said, but 5. _____ they didn't believe me. 6. _____, after the concert we saw Katy Perry 7. _____ she was leaving. She stopped me and said to me, "My baseball hat looks great on you."

C. Complete the story using the past simple or the past continuous of the verbs in parenthesis.

Last weekend my brother Quentin and I 1. _____ (go) on a day trip to the forest near our town. While we 2. _____ (walk), we 3. _____ (see) a small lake and stopped to have lunch there.

We 4. _____ (eat) our sandwiches when suddenly it 5. _____ (start) raining. Unfortunately, we didn't have umbrellas with us, so we 6. _____ (decide) to leave. While we 7. _____ (run) in the rain, I 8. _____ (saw) a small house. Quentin was cold, so we went into the house. There was nobody there, but it was nice and clean. When the rain 9. _____ (stop), we 10. _____ (get) up to leave. We 11. _____ (close) the door of the house when a man 12. _____ (arrive). We didn't want to talk to him so we 13. _____ (run) away and didn't look back.

