

Unit 7: The Tallest Structures around the World

Listen and Fill in blanks

Listening Practice 1 (CD1, Track 25)

Annie: Hello?

Travel Agent: Good afternoon, Annie Marsh. I am calling because you won a _____ you entered last month with my company, World Tours in Tall Places. You are going to visit all the _____ in Asia.

Annie: Really? I won the _____ Tour?

Travel Agent: Yep! You _____ did! You are going to _____ to visit the Taipei 101, to _____ to visit the IFC, to _____ to visit the World Finance Center, and finally to _____ to visit the Petronas Towers.

Annie: I can't believe it! I never win any contests! Just wondering, _____ ?

Travel Agent: Oh. Hmm. I have that written down somewhere. Hold on. OK. Here it is. The Taipei 101 is _____, the World Finance Center is _____, the Petronas Towers are _____, and the IFC is _____.

Annie: Wow! How exciting! I have never seen any _____ that tall in my life. Oh, so since I won the contest, I don't have to _____ anything for this trip?

Travel Agent: Well, all your airfare, ground _____, and hotel _____, but your personal _____ are not.

Annie: That is OK! I can't wait!

Listening Practice 2 (CD1, Track 26)

1. The _____ in the world are the Petronas Towers in Kuala Lumpur, _____. Including the _____, they are _____.
2. The _____ in the world is the CN Tower in Toronto, _____. Including the _____, it is _____.
3. The _____ in North _____ is the Willis Tower in Chicago, USA. Including the _____, it is _____.
4. The _____ in the world is the Kingda Ka at Six Flags in New Jersey, _____. It is _____ and goes 206 km per hour!