

1. Choose the correct option. ____ / 3

1. Can you name man who / which was America's first president?
2. Can you name the country which / where Mozart was born?
3. Can you name the country which / where has just exited the UE?

2. Complete the sentences with "who", "which", "where", "when", or "whose".

1. The café _____ was closed last year is going to be re-opened soon.
2. The police arrested the criminals, _____ broke into Mrs. Collin's house.
3. My neighbours found their dog _____ got lost in the Lincoln Park yesterday.
4. We visited the art gallery _____ we saw many abstract paintings.
5. I know a boy _____ won the swimming competition. I met him last year _____ we were preparing a history project together.
6. What is the name of the hotel _____ you stayed last holiday?

3. Translate the parts of sentences from Polish into English. Use "who", "which", "where", "when", or "whose".

1. Do you know Sarah _____ (której rodzice pracują) at our school?
2. The restaurant _____ (gdzie my jadaliśmy obiad w niedzielę) is now closed at the weekends.
3. There weren't any documents in the bag _____ (którą znalazłem w parku) yesterday.
4. I was really relieved _____ (kiedy zobaczyłam, że zdałam egzamin). I was sure I'd fail.

I am really happy because my best friend _____ (który mieszka teraz w Chicago) is visiting me next week.