Find a word that doesn't fit in every sentence

1. You've been unemployed and been seeking work for months.

2. You have more less money now than when you were unemployed.

3. This policy is designed to make ensure aid goes to those who need it most.

4. A universal basic income would provide a fixed benefit to all members of the society.

5. Only by impairing individuals to create much long-term change in their lives and communities can we begin to break the cycle of poverty.

LIVEWORKSHEETS