

SPAIN IN THE MIDDLE AGES

1. Drag and draw to complete sentences about the Visigoths. (pincha y arrastra)

latin	Recaredo	king	Roman laws
Visigothic Kingdom of Toledo	Catholicism.	507 A.D.	farmers

- In the Visigoths established the
- The made the laws.
- King converted the Visigoths to
- The Visigoths spoke and adopted
- The Visigoths were

2. Look at the map and order the sentences.

711 A.D.

- In 929 A.D., Abderramán III declared that al-Andalus was independent. (Córdoba Caliphate)
- After the Battle of Guadalete the Muslims conquered al-Andalus.
- In the 11th century, al-Andalus was divided into taifa kingdoms.
- al-Andalus was an emirate. Part of the Muslims empire.
- In 711 A.D. the Muslims attacked the Visigothic Kingdom of Toledo.
- In 1492, Granada was the last taifa kingdom.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

3. Write the names of these places in al-Andalus.

4. Write True or False.

- People in al-Andalus were farmers, artisans, merchants and worked in agriculture

- Muslims in al-Andalus spoke Latin.

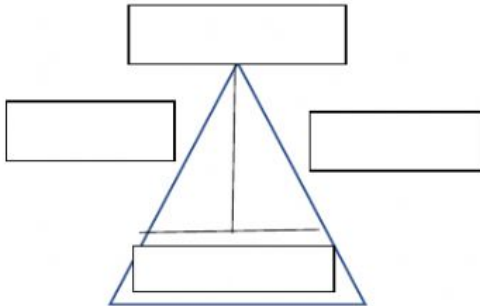

- Christians and Jews in al-Andalus lived where they wanted and practised their religion.

- They had to pay taxes.

- They could carry weapons.

5. Complete the drawing using the words from the wordbox.

nobles	Blacksmith	Copied and translated books	clergy	Farmers and agriculture
Ruled the country	King	artisans	millers	peasants

6. What caused the Reconquista? Look at the maps and order the words to make sentences.

1. more / Christians / needed / land.

2. thought / belonged / al-Andalus / Christians / them / to

3. weak / al-Andalus / was

7. Complete the sentences about the Reconquista.

- Alfonso VI conquered
- In the Battle of Navas de Tolosa, Christians conquered
- Jaime I conquered and
- Fernando III conquered and
- In 1492 Christians conquered