

THE URBAN MYTHS PROJECT

Choose the correct option

The Urban Myths project that in 2013 in Belarus. By 2018 in the capital and the regions, there 44 murals created by Belarusian and foreign street artists. One of the murals on a 12-storey block of flats in 2018 by Fintan Magee, an Australian street artist. Before the artists up the idea for the mural he on historical excursions around Minsk for a few days. Magee liked the fact that Belarusian young people for their future in new technologies and expressed it in a mural called Monument to Belarusian Futurism. The mural a 12-year-old boy who a robot-bird-like figure in his hands. Behind him, a shadow in the wall through which a misty city skyline

GIRL WITH BALLOON

Fill in the gaps with the correct article. If no article is used, put --- .

Girl with Balloon first appeared on street of London in 2002. Since then young girl has become popular symbol of hope, one of best-known examples of Banksy's art in world and most iconic image in contemporary urban art. It is timeless because it represents childish innocence that we all were born with and evokes desire to protect her hope for future. To create original street art piece Banksy chose dirty wall in poor area where artwork's meaning would have its greatest impact. He rubbed away stains from wall where he was going to paint girl, which gives her figure sense of purity. little girl is painted in black and white looking toward her balloon with hint of smile. There is clearly wind blowing from behind girl which blows forward her hair and dress. She is setting free or reaching for her red heart-shaped balloon. Hand-written message next to original graffiti art reads "There is always hope".

