

1. Complete True or False

Europe it's in the Northern Hemisphere True False

In the north of Europe, we have the Arctic Ocean True False

In the south of Europe, we have the Asia and the Black sea True False

In the east of Europe, we have the Mediterranean Sea True False

In the west of Europe, we have the Asia True False

2. Put in the correct place

Mediterranean Sea Arctic Ocean Atlantic Ocean Asia Black Sea

3. Choose the correct one

In a relief map we can see countries and cities.

Europe have 47 countries.

Only important countries have a capital city.

Each country has their own language.

Each country has their own traditions and government.

4. Guess the river.

Starts in the Alps, and it flows into the North Sea. There live many different fish, such as salmon. It is 1230 km long.

River: Country/ies:

It's the longest river (3,700 km long) it flows into Caspian Sea. In winter freezes. There are animals such as pelicans and seals.

River: Country/ies:

Is the second longest river in Europe (2860km) and it flows into the Black Sea.

River: Country/ies:

5. Match

Ural Mountains	France, Italy, Switzerland, and Austria
Alps	South Russia
Scandinavian Mountains	Russia
Caucasus	Norway And Sweden

6. Choose.

The oldest mountain range of Europe...

Alps Ural Mountain Scandinavian Mountains Caucasus

The longest mountain range of the World...

Alps Ural Mountain Scandinavian Mountains Caucasus

The highest mountain range of Europe...

Alps Ural Mountain Scandinavian Mountains Caucasus