Read the text below. Fill in gaps 1-6 with choices A-F. There are two choices you do not need to use.

A Ukrainian start-up improves lives through English.

If Shakespeare was still alive, he might be happy to learn that a start-up whose only purpose is 1_____ has been valued at more than $1 billion.

Such is the case of Grammarly, a San Francisco-based start-up 2_____ The company was founded in 2009 by Kyiv natives Oleksii Shevchenko and Maksym Lytvyn. Its Al*-powered software helps people to improve their writing by 3_____ as well as incorrect speech constructions in real time.

Grammarly's corrections explain why an expression should be avoided and recommend a better version. The program can also check a text for plagiarism, and suggest the right register to use depending 4_____ Grammarly claims its algorithms have been "developed 5_____". A variety of innovative ideas are used, including advanced machine learning and deep learning, which has earned the start-up the reputation as "one of the world's most innovative Al companies". Since launching its product in January 2015, the company 6_____ The company has 200 team members in San Francisco, New York, Vancouver and Kyiv.

*Al - Artificial Intelligence

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Look at the underlined words in the text. Use a dictionary to check their meaning. Fill in the gaps with the correct form of the words. You can use some of the words more than once.

1 Do you usually _____conflicts? Why?

2 What do you _____most in your friends?

3 When was your school _____?

4 Do you remember when the _____of the first manned space mission to the Moon was?

5 Would you like to study in Ukraine or abroad? What does it _____ on?

6 Have you ever_____ something that is not true?

7 What can you do to _____your school marks?

8 What is your _____for learning English?

9 Is there a big _____ of fruit where you live?

10 Which _____technologies do you find useful?

11 What job would you like to have? What does your choice _____ on?

12 How can you _____ the ecological situation in your region?

Ask and answer with a partner.

LIVEWORKSHEETS