

Look at the sentences below. Write down if they are True or False.

|   | Statements                                                      | True or False? |
|---|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| 1 | A computer virus is a program that helps computers work better. |                |
| 2 | Anti-virus software is harmful to computers.                    |                |
| 3 | A computer virus can hide in a computer.                        |                |
| 4 | Anti-virus software can pretend to be a song or a video.        |                |
| 5 | Viruses cannot spread to other computers.                       |                |
| 6 | Anti-virus software can be used to stop viruses on computers.   |                |
| 7 | A computer virus is a program made to harm a computer.          |                |
| 8 | Computers can get viruses if you visit bad websites.            |                |