

Order the verbs and match them with their participle form.

- a. brought
- b. spoken
- c. read
- d. seen
- e. enjoyed
- f. made
- g. flown
- h. found
- i. done
- j. acted
- k. written
- l. learnt

1 ese	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	7 elnar	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
2 jeoyn	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	8 ierwt	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
3 ylf	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	9 akeps	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
4 od	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	10 aemk	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
5 eadr	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	11 infd	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
6 cat	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	12 rbgan	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

Write the present perfect or the past simple form of the verbs.

Bill: Sarah, you ever (eat) chicken with chocolate?

Sarah: No, I never (have) that! you ever (try) it?

Bill: Yes, I have, and I (cook) it before, too.

Sarah: When you (cook) it?

Bill: Last week. It was unusual, but I (think) it was delicious!

Write the present perfect or the past simple form of the verbs.

Alex: Hi, Maisy. How was your holiday?

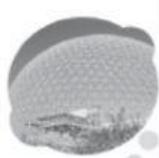

Maisy: Hi, Alex! It was great. I (go) to Montreal. you ever (be) to Canada?

Alex: No, I never (visit) Canada, but I (be) to Europe.

Maisy: Really? When you (go) to Europe?

Alex: Just now, in the summer holiday. We (fly) to London. you ever (visit) Europe?

Maisy: Yes, my family and I (go) to Paris ten years ago. I (be) just a baby.

Choose the correct options.

Today is the last day of the summer course and these three friends have had / had a fun time. Last week, they have made / made a film, and we have been / were there to ask a few questions. Our first question was, 'Have you ever shoot / shot a film before?' They answered, 'No, we didn't / haven't!' Amazing! Then we asked, 'Have / Did you enjoy making the film?' They said, 'Yes, this has been / was the best summer course ever!'

'Have you ever eaten / ate shark fin soup?' I asked / have asked a friend this question when we were in a Chinese restaurant. Personally, I have never buy / bought shark fin soup because of its ecological impact. Over the last few years, millions of sharks died / have died for their fins.

Choose the correct options.

What does your dog think about? In 1993, French scientist Marcel Duchien decided / has decided to find out. Since then, he did / has done thousands of experiments to determine what goes on in your dog's mind. Do you know what he has discovered / discovered? During one experiment, almost every dog thought / has thought about food 90 percent of the time. And the other 10 percent? He hasn't found / didn't find out yet!

