Dear Marilia,,

Hi Marilia, I'm sorry because this is the first letter for you since I promised you to send you letter as soon as possible when I have arrived in Kuala Lumpur. In fact, I did so much preparation before started studying in Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM). I found some difficulties to speak in Malay language. Therefore, I should take private course to know Malay language as well as possible. I also need some translator to help me in understanding some articles.

Even though, I found some difficulties here. But day by day, I could be comfort here because many people here are very friendly for all foreigners including me. Now, I am very happy to study English Literature here because many classmates also supported me very well.

Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia is the best university in Malaysia. It's a very deep for education. History, English, Science, Gigs, Art, Physical, Math, and so on. I hope you will come here as soon as possible to study here and become my classmates.

Now, this is the end of the letter. I hope the letter will arrive early there!

Sincerely yours,

Carolina

Dear Frodi,

It was a real sorrow that I heard this morning of your great loss. I knew your mother was ill, for your brother told me several weeks ago. However, as he at that time did not seem to think the illness was very serious, the news of your mother's death came to me as a shock. You have my sincere and heartfelt sympathy, my dear fellow, in your sorrow. I know you will feel it deeply, for you always thought so much of your mother and loved her so truly. I feel it also as a personal loss to myself, for your mother was always very kind to me. Her death must be a terrible grief to your father, too. Please assure him of my sincere sympathy.

Words, I know, are poor comforters. "The heart knows its own sorrow", and in such sorrows we are always alone. However, it is not mere words when I say that I feel with you in your sorrow.

Your sincere friend,

Jean
