

What I like about my classmates

Your class is part of a team. Each person in your class is special - they are not the same as anyone else, and they have their own skills and personalities. Write something positive about a classmate in one of the boxes under their name. What do you like about them?

Name:

They are kind and always help me when I'm stuck.