IV. Reading comprehension. Read the following passage and choose the best answer.

A. Every year, on the 1st of November, my mother asks me what I want for Christmas. This year I told her, "I want the new Space video game." Space was the game of the year. Everyone wanted it. I waited patiently for Christmas to arrive. On Christmas morning I went straight to the tree to open all my presents. I opened everything but my video game was not there. I was really sad. It was the only thing I wanted. I tried to put on a brave face and thank my family for all my other great presents, but they knew I was disappointed. I thought I was going to cry. I ran up to my room so no one would see the tears in my eyes. To my surprise, there was a gift sitting on my bed. I tore the wrapping paper off the tiny box. It was Space! I ran back downstairs and hugged my mom. I was the happiest boy in the world.
