Read the following passage. Answer all questions.

Passage 1

Lisa was left alone at home one night. She closed the doors and windows and sat viewing television. Suddenly she heard a loud tapping sound on the front door. When she opened the door, there was a man standing in front of her. He said he had come to borrow a pack of matches. Lisa agreed to give him the matches, and then he took out a gun from his pocket. He ordered Lisa to show him where the jewels and money were kept. Lisa was so afraid that she fell to the ground unconscious. The man ran out of the house. He tripped on the step and fell with a loud thud. The neighbors then ran to Lisa's rescue.
