My name's Bill and I'm a painter. It can be a difficult job when the weather's bad but I still like it. Well, yesterday, I went to paint a house for a woman called Mrs Hill but when I got to the house there was no – one in. I decided to start painting because it was a big house and I had just two days to finish it.

At about midday I stopped for lunch and went to a café round the corner. I asked for burger and chips. That's my favorite meal. But there were no burgers so I had fish and chips instead.

Well, I was eating my food when a woman phoned me. She said, "Where are you?" and I answered, "I'm having my lunch!" I was surprised because she was very unfriendly and she didn't say she liked my painting.

At two o'clock I went back to the house but there was still no-one there! Then I saw a woman in the garden of the house next door. She looked very angry so I said "What's the matter?". Her answer made me feel terrible. She said "I'm waiting for a man to paint my house. He said he'd come this morning but he hasn't arrived yet." "What's your name?" I asked her. "Mrs Hill" she said!
