

PERMISSION: BE ALLOWED TO

We use am / is / are allowed to to talk about permission in the present.

I'm allowed to study with friends.

We use was / were allowed to to talk about permission in the past.

When we were little, we weren't allowed to play video games every day.

We use will / won't be allowed to to talk about permission in the future.

He won't be allowed to have a party this summer.

1.- Find and correct the mistake in each sentence.

In tomorrow's test, the students won't be allowed to use dictionaries.

1- We wasn't allowed to play outside yesterday

2- When I'm older, I'm allowed to buy a car.

3- Children are not allowed run in the school building.

4- The dog doesn't allowed to lie on the sofa.

5- It's Friday today, so you allowed to stay up late.

2.- Complete the second sentence so it means the same as first. Use the correct form of be allowed to.

You can't make any mistakes. The teacher gets angry! You aren't allowed to make any mistakes.

1- I couldn't borrow my sister's dress for the party. I borrowed my sister's dress for the party.

2- Jenny hopes she can go on vacation with her friends this summer.

Jenny hopes she go on vacation with her friends this summer.

3- We can't eat our lunches in the classroom. We eat our lunches in the classroom.

4- The teacher won't let you do your homework tomorrow. She's expecting it today.

You _____ do your homework tonight.

PERMISSION: CAN, COULD

We use can / can't + base form to talk about permission in the present.

We use could / couldn't + base form to talk about permission in the past.

3.- Choose the correct answers. And then rewrite them using to be allowed to

You (can't) / couldn't come into the bathroom. I'm taking a shower

You are not allowed to come into the bathroom I'm taking a shower

1- In the test last week, we can / couldn't ask any questions.

2- I can / could go to the party this evening.

3- We can't / couldn't watch the movie last night.

4- I can / could wear my sister's jacket when she didn't need it.

5- The children can / could have some of Grandpa's birthday cake this afternoon.

4.- Complete the sentences with can, can't, could, or couldn't, and the verb in parentheses

You _____ can't leave _____ school. You're only 13! (leave)

1- I'm sorry, but you _____ your presentation today. (give)

2- I liked rainy school days because we _____ in the classrooms. (play)

3- You _____ your dog on vacation with you. The hotel welcome pets! (go)

4- I _____ to the beach yesterday because my aunt was visiting. (go)

5- My brother _____ into my bedroom when I'm studying because he's too noisy. (come)

(to go) > Buses aren't allowed to go here.

(to play) > Children _____ in this area.

(to eat and drink) > We _____ here.

(to enter) > Cats _____ this building.

(to use) > My sister _____ her mobile phone.

(to go fishing) > My uncle and aunt in this pond.

(to poop) > Pets here.

(to go) > Girls into Mike's room.

(to bully) > You at our school.

(to walk) > Mr. Sebel his dog in this park.