

Name: _____ Cls2:English Section: _____

Reinforcement
Tense Transformation
29 January, 2022

PRESENT CONTINUOUS TENSE

Present Continuous Tense (action still happening) use verb+ ing= writing, climbing, running

I → am writing

He
She is writing
It

We
They are writing
You

Q: Change simple present into present continuous tense and vice versa.

1. She gives milk to her cat.

2. The farmer is growing wheat.

3. Ali takes his dog for a walk.

4. Her baby is crying bitterly.

5. We are giving charity to poor people.

6. He plays hockey very well.

PAST CONTINUOUS TENSE

Past Continuous Tense (action was happening in past) use verb+ing= was writing/running, were writing/running

He
She was writing
It
I

We
They were writing
You

Q: Change simple past into past continuous tense and vice versa.

1. You ran fast in the race.

2. Ali lived with his family.

3. My teacher came to my house.

4. I was eating a yummy sandwich with hot chocolate.

5. They said goodbye to their uncle.

6. The little duck was not swimming in the pond.

7. Were you flying a kite?

