

Exercise Sheet

Q1

True or false? Mood is the form a verb takes to show how it is to be regarded.

A: True

B: False

Q2

The imperative mood is a verb form that:

A: states facts or asks questions.

B: expresses a command or a request.

C: shows a wish or doubt.

Q3

Select the one in the imperative mood:

A: Go!

B: No way!

Q4

Select the one in the imperative mood:

A: I am going to cross the field.

B: Shout when you see the bull.

Q5

Select the one in the imperative mood:

A: Please take your shoes off.

B: You have to take your shoes off.

Q6

To add force to an imperative sentence, you can end it with:

A: a period (full stop).

B: an exclamation mark.

Q7

Select the one in the imperative mood:

A: That will be easy for her.

B: Make it easier for her.

Q8

True or false? This sentence is in the imperative mood:

Pass the pepper.

A: True

B: False

Q9

Select the quotation that features a sentence in the imperative mood:

A: Do not worry about your difficulties in Mathematics. I can assure you mine are still greater. (Albert Einstein)

B: In mathematics, you don't understand things. You just get used to them. (Johann von Neumann)

Q10

Select the quotation that features a sentence in the imperative mood:

A: Good judgement comes from experience. Experience comes from bad judgement. (Anon)

B: Do not condemn the judgement of another because it differs from your own. You may both be wrong. (Dandemis)