

PASSIVE VOICE WITH REPORTING VERBS: PAY ATTENTION TO THESE EXAMPLES:

Example 1: Scientists believe that chewing gum improves the memory.

It is believed that chewing gum improves the memory.

Chewing gum is believed to improve the memory.

Example 2: They think that the burglar got in through the kitchen window.

It is thought that the burglar got in through the kitchen window.

The burglar is thought to have got in through the kitchen window.

Example 3: People say that he is living abroad.

It is said that he is living abroad.

He is said to be living abroad.

Example 4: The police assume that the thief was wearing gloves.

It is assumed that the thief was wearing gloves.

The thief is assumed to have been wearing gloves.

If you need more information about how to use these structures, you can watch this VIDEO in Spanish.

Now, you are ready to do some activities:

Passive with reporting verbs. Put the following sentences into the passive.

1- People claim the Mona Lisa is the world's most famous painting.

The Mona Lisa

2- Experts believe it was a portrait of a nobleman.

It is

3- They say her smile hides a secret.

Her smile

4- Many believe it is Leonardo's masterpiece.

It is

5- Scientists know he was a wonderful engineer too.

He is

6- Historians think he was unhappy in old age.

He is

7- People think the fire started at about 8 o'clock.

The fire

8- They say experts are studying objects from a Spanish ship.

Experts

9- They believe the ship was carrying gold bars.

The ship