

Passive and Active Voice

Direction : Identify whether the sentences below are in active or passive voice.

1. Breakfast is served from 07.00 to 10.00.
2. I gave him a watch for his birthday.
3. The dolphins have learned many tricks.
4. Jason has been invited to the party.
5. You shouldn't throw litter on the ground.
6. I had already been offered a job at the bank.
7. People cut down more and more trees.
8. A new shop will be opened this Friday.
9. The tower was designed by Eiffel.
10. Dad is repairing the radio.

Direction : Change these active verb to passive.

1. They are building a new mall near the airport.
2. Alan shot the basketball at the hoop.
3. A famous designer will redecorate the hotel.
4. People must wear masks these days.
5. We didn't see the advertisement.
6. A boy was flying the kite.
7. The company pays the employees on Friday.
8. Somebody has drunk all the soft drinks.
9. Dew had sent a parcel.
10. By next March the pupils will have taken exams.

1. A new mall near the airport.
2. The basketball at the hoop by Alan.
3. The hotel by a famous designer.
4. Masks these days.
5. The advertisement by us.
6. The kite by a boy.
7. The employees on Friday.
8. All the soft drinks
9. A parcel by Dew.
10. By next March exams by the pupils.