

Religious and Moral Education

End of Unit Assessment – Dignity of Work

1. State True or False

- a. Work is the effort made to do a job.
- b. Dignity is the seriousness, value and respect you put into your work.
- c. People only work to pay bills.
- d. Work helps us to be strong and productive.
- e. People who lived in Bible times did not work.

2. Who am I? Write the occupation.

- a. My sheep know my voice.
I look after them, this is my choice.
I am a _____.
- b. I am surrounded by books from every nation.
When you visit my library, I can help you find fiction or non- fiction.
I am a _____.
- c. Mathematics, Science and Language are some of the subjects I teach.
When you come to my classroom, the stars you are sure to reach.
I am a _____.
- d. I enforce the law, make sure it's correct.
I am here to serve and protect.
I am a _____.
- e. It maybe rainy, it may be sunny,
In one day, it come together,
It is my job to study and predict the weather.
I am a _____.

3. Match the Bible character with their occupation.

Bible Character	Occupation
f. Jesus	dressmaker
g. Luke	prophet
h. Dorcas	Teacher
i. Zaccheus	doctor
j. Elijah	tax collector

4. Selection a word from the box to complete to paragraph entitled "The Right Attitude"

skills	punctual	age	dignity	attitude
--------	----------	-----	---------	----------

The Right Attitude

A positive _____ towards work will help us to succeed in life. We must practise to be truthful, committed, _____ and respectful. We can develop these qualities from an early _____. Doing our work with _____ and care shows others that we love and enjoy our work. When we cooperate with others to complete a task it helps to improve our _____ and our creativity.