

Exercise 1

Categorize the if-sentences.

If you buy a sportscar, you pay a higher insurance.

If I won the lottery, I would buy my parents a new house.

If we weren't so hungry, we wouldn't go to have some food.

If my alarm clock had rung, I would have been on time.

If he got the job, I wouldn't be very happy.

Your English would improve if you would read more.

I would have told you the news earlier if I had seen you.

We would be rich if we sold our house.

If my brother would be here, he would go fishing with me.

If you want to pass the exam, you have to study hard.

I wouldn't have met Tom if I had stayed at home.

If they don't get up early, they can't go jogging.

Facts	Possibility in the future	Unlikely or unreal situations now or in the future	Imagining that something happened differently or that something didn't happen

Exercise 2

Finish the if-sentences

1. If John does not leave now, he his train. (miss)
2. She me if I was in trouble. (help)
3. If he more careful, he wouldn't have got caught. (be)
4. They a lie if they had thought it would help me. (make up)
5. If the weather is fine tomorrow, we to the beach. (will go)
6. She if I told her the truth. (worry)
7. If I had to hold a speech, I pretty nervous. (be)