

Comparatives with more + adjective

History is	more	interesting	than	math.
Cars are		expensive		bikes.
The new house is		modern		the old one.

Use more + adjective + than with ...

- some two-syllable adjectives (modern)
- all adjectives with three or more syllables (difficult, expensive, interesting)

1 Write. Look at the pens. Complete the sentences and compare them.

Pens for kids

doll pens

parrot pens

Pens for adults

smart pens

ink pens

1. The doll pen is more interesting than the ink pen. (interesting)
2. The doll pen is more expensive than the parrot pen. (expensive)
3. The pens for kids are more exciting than the pens for adults. (exciting)
4. The ink pen is more old-fashioned than the smart pen. (old-fashioned)

2 Write. Make sentences.

1. My cousin / me (beautiful)

My cousin is more beautiful than me.

2. Science / English (difficult)

3. Electric lights / cell phones (important)

4. Vegetables / fruit (delicious)

Choose the correct words to make true sentences.

1. The dolphin is   the fish.
2. The crab is   the starfish.
3. The starfish is   the fish.
4. The jellyfish is   the octopus.
5. The octopus is   the jellyfish.