

Change the tense

1. Jack is brushing his teeth now.

Jack                      his teeth twice a day.

2. My cousin is using his laptop now.

My cousin                      his laptop every day.

3. We are drinking tea at the moment.

We                      tea in the morning.

4. I am playing the guitar right now.

I                      the guitar three times a week.

5. Mum is watching TV now.

Mum always                      TV in the evening.

6. Bob and Sam are swimming at the moment.

Bob and Sam usually                      after school.

7. Linda is taking photos right now.

Linda often                      photos.

8. Nick is flying his kite now.

Nick                      his kite every day.

9. Emma is studying English right now.

Emma                                  English twice a week.

10. My cat is sleeping at the moment.

My cat never                                  at night.

11. My parents are reading newspapers now.

My parents                                  newspapers every day.

12. Kim is having lunch right now.

Kim always                                  lunch at half past 12.

13. Ted is doing homework at the moment.

Ted usually                                  homework after lunch.

14. My friends are climbing trees now.

My friends often                                  trees.

15. Pete is tidying his room right now.

Pete                                  his room every day.

16. You are skating at the moment.

You                                  every winter.

17. My Grandma is washing the dishes now.

My Grandma                                  the dishes every day.